

Some of Our Favorite Credit Cards for Young Adults

Best for Beginners & Building Credit

Discover it® Student Cash Back – Great for students with no credit history, offering 5% cash back on rotating categories and a first-year cashback match.

Capital One QuicksilverOne – If you have limited credit, this card gives 1.5% cash back on all purchases. It has a $39 annual fee but helps build credit fast.

Best for Everyday Spending

Chase Freedom Unlimited® – 1.5% unlimited cash back on all purchases, plus bonus rewards on dining and travel. Great if you want simple rewards.

Citi Double Cash® Card – Earns 2% cash back (1% when you buy, 1% when you pay). Great for maximizing rewards on all purchases.

Best for Travel & Perks

Capital One Venture One Rewards – No annual fee, 1.25x miles per dollar, and no foreign transaction fees—great for young travelers.

Best for No Credit/Bad Credit

Capital One Platinum – No rewards, but no annual fee, and it helps build credit quickly.

<https://www.discover.com/credit-cards/student-credit-card/>

<https://www.chase.com/personal/credit-cards/freedom/unlimited>

<https://www.citi.com/credit-cards/citi-double-cash-credit-card>

<https://www.capitalone.com/credit-cards/ventureone/>

<https://www.capitalone.com/credit-cards/platinum/>

